

BLANDINGS PARK WILDLIFE SANCTUARY

IN COOPERATION WITH MCARTHUR PUBLIC LIBRARY
AT 270 MAIN STREET IN BIDDEFORD

IS PROUD TO PRESENT THE

BPWS 2008 LIFE LECTURE SERIES
(LEARNING IS FUN AND EDUCATIONAL)

Tuesday MAY 6 McArthur Public Library 7 pm to 8:30 pm

VERNAL POOLS and the CRITTERS IN OUR WOODS

Guest Speakers: RJ Mere, Noted Local Naturalist & Outdoor Writer and Chris Coppi, Environmental Specialist with Maine DEP

*When you hear about vernal pools, do you wonder: what are they, where are they, and why are they so important to us? Do you ever wonder who lives in our woods?
If so, come, join us and hear first hand about all of the creatures, large and small,
who live in our backyards!*

Tuesday JULY 8 McArthur Public Library 7 pm to 8:30 pm

THE MYSTERIES OF WATER AND WILDLIFE

Guest Speaker: Anna Hunt, Chewonki Foundation, with Live Reptile & Amphibian Friends

This program is especially for kids. There will be hands-on activities and animals including our mascot, the Blanding's turtle. Kids get to take home a clean water poster that is interactive with Chewonki's web site!

These Lectures are free and open to the general public.

All are welcome

Please RSVP by email to: bpws@maine.rr.com as space is limited
